ARTICLE 7 SHARES

7.1 Form of shares

Subject to any legal or regulatory restrictions, fully paid-up shares may either be registered or bearer shares, at the shareholder's election.

They shall be registered in an individual account in accordance with the terms and conditions provided by the applicable laws and regulatory provisions.

7.2 Transfer of shares

Every payment in respect of shares subscribed for will be recorded in the form of a note inserted in the registered account opened in the name of the subscriber concerned.

Any late payment shall automatically incur interest payable to the Company at the legal interest rate with effect from its due date, without the necessity for any formal notice or legal claim, and without prejudice to any personal action that the Company may bring against the defaulting shareholder and any enforcement measures provided by law.

7.4 Rights to company assets

7.5 Indivisibility, legal and beneficial ownership, inheritance

In the event of separation of the legal and beneficial ownership of a share, the legal owner and the beneficial owner have the right to participate in collective decisions. The voting right attached thereto shall belong to the beneficial owner for Ordinary General Meetings and to the legal owner for Extraordinary General Meetings. However, the legal owner and the beneficial owner may agree between them to any other distribution of voting rights at general meetings. In this case, the agreement must be notified to the Company by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, and the Company will be bound to apply the agreement at any meeting held after the expiry of a period of twenty (20) days following receipt of the letter.

A shareholder's heirs, creditors, agents or assigns shall not be entitled on any grounds whatever to attach the goods and assets of the Company, to apply for their distribution, or to interfere in any way whatever in the Company's administration.

In order to exercise their rights, they must rely on the Company's balance sheet and on the decisions of the General Meeting.

7.6 Exercise of a right

Whenever it is necessary to own several shares to exercise any right, and particularly in the event of the conversion or allocation of shares by way of transactions such as capital consolidations, increases or reductions, whether in cash or by incorporation of reserves or by way of merger or in any other manner, owners of individual shares or shares whose number is lower than that required shall not have any rights against the Company. In such circumstances shareholders must make their own arrangements to purchase, sell or group together the necessary number of shares or rights.

ARTICLE 8 IDENTIFICATION OF SHAREHOLDERS

8.1 Procedure for identification of shareholders

The Company shall keep itself informed of the composition of the body of shareholders under the conditions provided by law.

In this respect, the Company shall use all legal measures provided for the identification of the owners of securities conferring an immediate or future right to vote at its shareholders' meetings.

8.2 Share ownership thresholds

In addition to the legal provisions applicable in this area, any natural or legal person that directly or indirectly (including through a company controlled within the meaning of Article L. 233-3 of the Commercial Code), alone or in concert, and in any way whatever, comes to hold 2% of the share capital or voting rights (the total number of voting rights to be used as the denominator being calculated on the basis of all the equities to which voting rights are attached, including equities whose voting rights have been suspended) must inform the Company of this by registered letter with proof of receipt requested addressed to the registered office, within a period of four stock exchange days from the date this threshold is attained, independently of the date of registration of such shares in any account, and must specify the total number of shares and securities giving access to the share capital and the number of voting rights that are owned, directly or indirectly, alone or in concert. Notice must be given in the same manner and within the same period when a holding is reduced to below this 2% threshold.

Above this threshold of 2%, any further increase or decrease in the holding by an amount of 1% of the share capital and voting rights must also be declared in the manner provided above.

In the event of non-compliance with the notice obligations referred to in this Article 8.2, and on the request, noted in the minutes of a General Meeting, of one or more shareholders owning at least two per cent (2%) of the share capital or voting rights, any shares in excess of the fraction that ought to have been declared shall be stripped of their voting rights and the defaulting shall not be entitled to exercise them or assign them for any General Meeting taking place until the expiry of a period of two years following the date on which such notice is properly served.

ARTICLE 9 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

9.1 Directors appointed by the General Meeting of shareholders

The Company shall be administered by a Board of Directors comprising no less than three and no more than 18 members, subject to the exception provided by law in the event of merger.

Subject to legal exceptions, each Director must be the owner of at least five hundred (500) registered shares throughout his term of office.

Directors have a three (3) years term of office. It expires at the end of the Ordinary General Meeting of shareholders convened to consider the financial statements for the previous financial year and held in the year in which their term of office expires. Directors may always be reappointed for consecutive terms. By way of exception, the Ordinary General Meeting may appoint one or more directors for a term of one or two years, to enable the staggered renewal of directors' terms of office.

When the legal conditions are met, the Board of Directors may appoint Directors on a temporary basis for the remainder of the term of office of their predecessor. By law, temporary appointments shall be subject to ratification by the next Ordinary General Meeting.

No natural person over 70 years of age may be appointed as a member of the Board of Directors if his appointment has the effect of increasing the number of members of the Board of Directors in excess of that age to more than one third of the total number. If during their term of office, the number of members of the Board of Directors over 70 years of age becomes more than one third of the total number, the oldest member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have resigned at the end of the Ordinary General Meeting called to approve the accounts for the previous financial year and held in the year in which the said age limit is attained.

9.2 Directors representing employees

In accordance with Article L. 225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code, the Board of Directors shall also include one or two Directors representing employees, appointed by the Central Workforce and Economic Committee.

If the number of Directors appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders is eight or fewer, one Director representing employees shall be appointed. If the number of Directors appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders is above eight, two Directors representing employees shall be appointed.

The number of members of the Board of Directors to be taken into consideration for purposes of determining the number of Directors representing employees shall be assessed on the day of appointment of the Director(s) representing employees. Where applicable, any Directors elected by employees pursuant to Article L. 225-27 of the French Commercial Code and any Directors representing employee shareholders appointed under article L. 225-23 of the French Commercial Code shall not be taken into account in this respect.

In accordance with Article L. 225-28 of the French Commercial Code, the appointed Director(s) shall have held an employment contract with the Company or one of its direct or indirect subsidiaries with its head office located on French territory, for at least two years preceding their appointment.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is specified that failure to appoint a Director representing employees in accordance with the law and this article, for whatever reason, shall not affect the validity of the Board of Directors' deliberations.

The Director representing employees has a three (3)-year term of office expiring at the end of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders convened to consider the financial statements for the previous financial year and held in the year in which the director's term of office expires.

If the number of Directors appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders falls to eight or fewer, the terms of both Directors representing employees shall continue for the remainder of their regular duration.

If, subsequent to a General Meeting of Shareholders, the number of Directors appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders exceeds eight, the Central Workforce and Economic Committee shall appoint a second Director to represent employees within six (6) months at the most of said General Meeting.

In the event of a vacancy due to death, resignation or dismissal, or any other cause whatsoever, affecting a Director representing employees, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of article L. 225-34 of the French Commercial Code. Pending the replacement of the Director representing employees, the Board of Directors may validly meet and deliberate.

As an exception to the rule provided in article 9.1. of these Articles of Association for Directors appointed by the General Meeting of shareholders, Directors representing employees shall not be subject to an obligation to hold a minimum number of shares.

If the Company should come no longer to be subject to the obligation outlined in Article L. 225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code, the term of office of the Director(s) representing employees shall terminate at the end of the meeting during which the Board of Directors shall have established that the Company no longer falls within the scope of Article L. 225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code.

Subject to the provisions of this article and of the law, Directors representing employees have the same status, powers and responsibilities as Directors appointed by the General Meeting of shareholders.

Directors representing employees shall not be taken into consideration for purposes of determining the minimum and maximum number of Directors provided in Article L. 225-17 of the French Commercial Code, nor for enforcement of the provisions of section 1 of Article L. 225-18-1 of the same Code.

9.3 Chairmanship of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman from among its members, who must be an individual person of less than 65 years of age at the time of his appointment. When the Chairman attains that age limit, he shall automatically be deemed to have resigned at the end of the Ordinary General Meeting called to approve the accounts for the previous financial year and held in the year in which the said age limit is attained.

The Chairman may be re-elected.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall organise and direct its work and report thereon to the General Meeting. He shall ensure the proper running of company bodies and in particular, shall satisfy himself that the Directors are in a position to carry out their duties.

If the Board of Directors has not met for more than two months, at least one-third of its members may ask the Chairman to convene a meeting to discuss a specific agenda.

The Chairman must comply with requests made to him pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs.

Subject to the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs, the agenda shall be settled by the Chairman and may, where necessary, be settled only at the time of the meeting.

Notices of meetings shall be issued by any means including verbally, and meetings may take place at the registered office or at any other place indicated in the notice of meeting, whether in France or abroad.

9.5 Conduct of meetings of the Board of Directors

Decisions shall be taken under the conditions as to quorum and majority provided by law. In the event of a tied vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Save insofar as this possibility is excluded by law, the Board of Directors may provide in its internal regulations for Directors to take part in meetings by such means of videoconferencing or telecommunication as enable them to be identified and participate effectively, in which case they shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of calculating the quorum and majority, in accordance with the applicable regulatory provisions.

The Board may appoint a Secretary who may or may not be a shareholder or a member of the Board.

The Board of Directors may adopt, by written consultation of the directors, decisions falling under the remit of the Board of Directors as referred to in article L. 225-37(3) of the French Commercial Code.
